

Mrs. Rothstein's August Roundup

Well, it is August and so much has taken place since our last newsletter. We are continuing to pray that our students will be at their desks, but until then, we will start the year off online. Please take some time to update yourself and your child with our remote learning plan. As previously mentioned, our remote learning plan will incorporate academic rigor, Catholic identity, social-emotional development, and professionalism. We understand this is not the ideal "first day of school", however, we are hoping that the excitement of our Spartans staff to start the year will resonate with your child. Your support and words of encouragement throughout the summer have been a blessing, thank you.

Staff Spotlight

Give a SPARTANS shout out to Ms. Ramirez (no relation to our Mrs. Ramirez!), our new Kindergarten teacher!

A slight change to the lineup.

Ms. Neky: 7/8 Religion

Ms. Porter 6 Religion

CONGRATULATIONS are in order! Over the summer, Ms. Porter became a Gigi to precious Tecuani.

Mrs. Paiva welcomed another grandbaby, Ava. And Mrs. Ramirez welcomed her first grandbaby, Kendall.

Welcome to our future SPARTANS!
